Emerging Leaders in Asia
An International Education Week Forum

The world is changing fast. The center of the world's attention is shifting quickly to Asia, with China's economic development demanding much of the attention. This forum will explore different leadership characteristics necessary to help Asian countries continue to take a global leadership role.

Date: Friday, November 19

Time: 12 noon - 1:00PM (light refreshment provided at 11:45)

Venue: Founder's Room (next to OISS), Lovett Hall, Entrance A

Panelists:
- Anne Chao, Dept. of History
- Steven Lewis, Associate Director, Chao Center
- Chanwoong Park, MBA Graduate student
- Chinmay Hegde, ECE Graduate student
- Wen Xing, Computational & Applied Math, Undergraduate

Moderator:
- Cindy Dinh, Editor of The Thresher