

BIOETHICS AND INDIAN TRADITIONS

TR 10:50 – 12:05 PM

Instructor: Brianne Donaldson

Bhagwaan Mahavir/Chao Family Foundation Postdoctoral Fellow in Jain Studies
bd24@rice.edu

In this course, we will examine western normative ethical theories alongside key concepts in Hinduism, Buddhism, and Jainism regarding definitions of life, death, consciousness, autonomy, disability, pain/pleasure, and how to make decisions in issues such as animal research, disorders of consciousness, abortion, and assisted suicide, among others. No prerequisites.

RICE

Chao Center
for Asian Studies